Art. 7 – Selection procedure

The selection procedure is carried out by the Board after a preliminary evaluation of each candidate's qualifications, curriculum and scientific production, including the doctoral thesis, according to the criterion identified by the MUIR in D.M. 243/2011.

The candidates chosen in the preliminary evaluation based on their comparative merits - between 10 and 20% of the number of applicants and not less than 6 - will then be called for interview. The interview will consist of a discussion of the candidate's qualifications and scientific production and may take the form of a seminar open to the public. If the total number of candidates is 6 or less all candidates will be interviewed. Any reference letters produced by the candidates will also be considered.

The discussion will take place in Italian. During the discussion, candidates must demonstrate adequate knowledge of the English language.

The public discussion with the Selection Committee shall take place either in person or remotely via teleconference, using audio and video through the Teams platform or another platform designated by the Committee. Candidates participating remotely must ensure access to a workstation equipped with a webcam (required for identification purposes), microphone, and headphones and/or speakers.

The date, time, and format of the public discussion (in person or remote) will be published at least 15 days in advance on the University website at: <https://bandi.unibo.it/docenti/rtd>. Such publication shall constitute official notification to all candidates.

At the same time, candidates will be notified, via the email address provided in their application, of their admission or non-admission to the public discussion. No further communications regarding the competition schedule or the list of admitted candidates will be issued.

Alma Mater Studiorum – University of Bologna shall not be held responsible for failure to receive or read such email notifications. Candidates are therefore required to regularly consult the official call webpage and, in the event of non-receipt of the notification, to contact the competent offices, provided that the schedule has been duly published.

Candidates must present a valid identification document at the time of the discussion.

European Union citizens shall present a passport or a valid identity document issued by their country of origin. Non-EU citizens shall present a valid passport.

Art. 8 – Ranking list and call proposal

At the end of the exams, the Selection Board draws up the merit ranking list. In case of equal merit, priority is determined by younger age.

The general merit ranking list is approved pursuant to an administration resolution and will be published in Alma Mater Studiorum – University of Bologna Official Bulletin. The ranking list is valid for six months.

The terms to raise any appeal shall start from the date of publication of said notice, in case the resolution has not been otherwise disclosed.

The use of the ranking is bound to the study and research needs related to the SSD Microbiology and Clinical Microbiology, foreseen by the call.

The Department of Medical and Surgical Sciences - DIMEC, will propose the recruitment by a majority vote of the professors and associate professors of the Department and approved by the Board of Governors.

Furthermore, the Department will propose the effective date of the contract, which must be signed within the peremptory term of 90 days from the date of approval of the procedure documents.

Art. 9 – Employment procedures

Following the conclusion of the recruitment procedure referred to in art. 8, the candidates will be asked to sign a fixed-term contract of full-time employment. The contract must be signed within the peremptory term of 90 days from the date of approval of the procedure acts.

The employment relationship is governed by a personal contract, statutory laws and EC regulations.

The medical activity is governed by the national collective agreement for medical staff and the specific appointment granted by the Hospital Facility "IRCCS Azienda Ospedaliero-Universitaria di Bologna, Policlinico di Sant'Orsola".

The personal contract shall specify any reasons for which it might be terminated, as well as the relevant periods of notice. In any case the contract will be terminated immediately and without notice in the event of the cancellation of the recruitment procedure to which it is inalienably linked.

The trial period shall last three months. At the end of the period, unless the employment relationship has been terminated by either of the parties, the employee is confirmed for service and the whole period worked from the beginning of the contract shall be calculated for seniority purposes.

Art. 10 – Documentation required for the participation in the public selection and for hiring purposes

For the purpose of participating in the public selection, documents, publications and qualifications in English, French, German, and Spanish may be submitted in their original language.

However, scientific publications related to the subject area of the competition, in the case of selection procedures in language-related fields, may also be submitted in their original language. Documents and qualifications in other languages must be presented in their original language, accompanied by a certified translation in Italian or English.

The translation must be certified as faithful to the foreign text and can be carried out by the competent diplomatic or consular representation or by an official translator. As for the documentation required for employment purposes, any acts or documents drafted in a foreign language must be accompanied by a certified translation into Italian, faithful to the foreign text, which can be carried out by the competent diplomatic or consular representation or by an official translator.

Art. 11 – Rights and duties of a researcher with a fixed-term contract of employment

In accordance with the rights and duties of public employees prescribed by the Italian civil code, on signing the contract the researcher will be expected to perform all those activities mentioned in Art. 2. These activities will be carried out in respect of the existing hierarchy and in coordination with existing programmes and research projects.

The assistant professor will perform the requested activities in person, substitution is not permitted.

Existing Italian laws concerning maternity, injury and illness will be applied.

The researcher will also assume rights and duties related to the medical care services mentioned in Art. 2.

The assistant professor undertakes to fulfill the obligations of conduct prescribed by the code of conduct, issued by DPR 62/2013.
